LIFTING SPIRITS AND MAKING CHANGE IN NORTH DEVON

On Saturday 12 September 2009 Philip Milton, Prospective Member of Parliament for North Devon Conservatives, and his wife, Helen, opened their doors at Trimstone Manor Country House Hotel to hold what was a magnificent evening to lift people's spirits in these hard times.

The evening's entertainment for those fortunate enough to be able to attend included live music from local Guitarist and Singer/Songwriter Erin Starnes, Steve Tucker's All Star six-piece Jazz Band and Classical Musicians Sam and Ruth Chapple, a great caricaturist and magician before the evening ended with an impressive firework finale. Guests also enjoyed a sumptuous buffet which was provided by the Hotel and a great sample of the Establishment's wares.

Says Philip:

"I believe this event went some way to helping to life people's spirits and perhaps close a door on 'yesterday' and launching North Devon's prosperous future for the years to come.

"The event received overwhelming support, both from the many in attendance but also from all those who could not make the event but share the desire to "Send Philip to Westminster".

"The evening could not have been the success that it was without the tremendous generosity of friends and supporters, many of whom either gave or significantly discounted their usual charges to help us all enjoy ourselves (and to ensure that as much of the donations went to the cause as possible). Therefore, I would like to thank Magician
