Dear Sir

ROCK PARK TERRACE - THE PRISON GATES!

On Monday morning at 9.30am, local campaigner, Mr Philip Milton who is also the Prospective Member of Parliament for the Conservatives for North Devon, is meeting with District Councillors Michael Harrison and John Mathews to review the gates.

Philip will also be presenting a further batch of "Devon County Council - Public Right of Way User Evidence Forms", including one he has been able to complete himself based on his local knowledge (he was born only a quarter of a mile away, owns a property but yards from the Terrace and his grandmother lived just along the road) to them to pass up the line to County and to ask why nothing has happened yet.

Not only are planning issues connected to these gates but more importantly, if there has been a public right of way all these years, why hasn't the County Council taken any action, particularly since they have known about the problem for years now. The ward is represented by Lib Dem Chris Hayward and of course, the Lib Dems controlled the County Council until last month. If you would like to attend, please contact Philip on 01271 344300.

Yours faithfully

Philip J Milton
